

Art: Installation/Site-Specific Art

Key word	Definition
Installation piece	An artwork that provides an experience for the viewer
Site Specific	An artwork that is designed and installed for a particular place
Arrangement	Making creative decisions to display something in an interesting way
Ephemeral	Lasting for only a short time
Foraging	To go from place to place searching for things to use
Yarn bombing	A form of street art, covering structures with knitted or crocheted material
Reclaim	To recover the use of something – in this case by making it more beautiful
Monochrome	A photograph or picture in black and white
Participatory art	Art where the audience takes part in the creative process
Text art	Visual art that uses text, or has writing as means of emotion
Emotion in art	Art as means to explore and express feelings
Miniature	A very small thing or a very small representation of something
Scale	The size of a piece of work in relation to something else
Repurpose	To adapt or change, to use in a different way

